Red Bank Middle School’s vision is to create and develop students who are lifelong learners and who will deliver innovative thinking to our community. As we look to prepare students for their futures, our work focuses on providing students opportunities to create, collaborate, communicate, and become critical thinkers.

At Red Bank Middle, students engage in real-world experiences through STEM-focused lessons and project-based learning with personalized learning opportunities based on student interest and choice.