

You are invited to participate in our 2020 What's Next? Transition Fair

This event has been organized to provide all Special Education students, families and educators with information of potential resources available after high school. Schools, agencies and programs that provide opportunities for learning, living or earning are encouraged to be an exhibitor.

The Fair will allow you to meet potential consumers from East Tennessee, North Georgia, North Alabama, and Western North Carolina and share resources and services available to help these students meet their transition goals.

Your school/program/organization is needed!
